A KANSAS JURIST DEAD.

Judge D. M. Valentine Died at His Home in Topeka Monday Afternoon.

Topeka, Kas., Aug. 6.—Judge D. M. Valentine, for twenty-four years a justice of the Kansas Supreme Court, died at his home in Topeka Monday afternoon from a complication of troubles mostly resulting from old age and general breakdown.

Judge Valentine was not only the oldest living member of the Kansas Supreme Court, but he occupied the bench in that tribunal longer than any other man who ever sat there, from January 1869 to January 1893, and during his term on the bench had prepared and delivered under his own name 1572 opinions, besides assisting in a large number of others.

The funeral will be held from the late home in Topeka Wednesday afternoon, and interment will be in Topeka cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Griffith, who have been living on Mr. Lannon's place south of the river have moved west of Great Bend, on Mr. Orr Patterson's place. The neighbors regret very much to have them leave, as they were held in great esteem by them. May peace and prosperity be theirs through life.

Judge Tonsley's Funeral.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Judge C. P. Tonsley were held Tuesday afternoon from the Congregational church, Rev. W. L. Sutherland officiating, assisted by Rev. R. L. Selle, of the M. E. Church.

The funeral was in charge of Pap Thomas Post G. A. R. which organization attended in a body escorting the casket from the residence to the church and eight of their members acting as pall bearers.

At the church a choir composed of Mrs. J. Geo. Brinkman, Mrs. Jennie Castle, O. W. Dawson and E. E. Epperson with Miss Anna Sutherland at the organ, rendered some fine music.

After a prayer by Rev. Selle, Rev. Sutherland read a biographical sketch of the deceased, and delivered a short eulogy.

A large concourse of friends of the family followed the remains to their last resting place in Great Bend Cemetery.

Miss Mell Dawson is visiting in Hoisington for a week.
